From the Pastor

“Come to me all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest”

There are few things in Scripture that speak so clearly to our needs as these words from Jesus. No matter what we are going through in life, we are all in need a place to find rest, and what a comfort to know that the one place we can go is to our Savior. It never ceases to amaze me how Scripture seems to transcend time and culture. These words spoken to Jewish followers of Christ thousands of years ago are still vital to us today. Whether we like it or not, this life is full of stress and busyness, and these things tend to pull our eyes off of the Lord. We get so caught up in the day to day that we lose focus on what is most important in life and that is our relationship with Jesus. I hope that you are able to stay connected in your walk with the Lord through prayer and reading of the Word. If you are feeling overwhelmed or disconnected in your walk, I would encourage you be sure that you are spending time with the Lord daily. Trust in the promise above that says “Come to me, and I will give you rest”.

ISAIAH 45:8

"SHOWER, O HEAVENS, FROM ABOVE, AND LET THE CLOUDS RAIN DOWN RIGHTEOUSNESS;
 let the earth open, that salvation and
 righteousness may bear fruit;

LET THE EARTH OPEN, THAT SALVATION AND
 RIGHTEOUSNESS MAY BEAR FRUIT;
 let the earth cause them both
 to sprout;
 I the Lord have created it.
